In the shops, taverns, government buildings, homes and streets, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry, George Mason, and other Virginia Patriots debated the ideas – liberty, independence, and personal freedoms – that led to the founding of American democracy and inspired generations of Americans and others from around the world. Enjoy lunch on your own at Merchants Square and tour with our guide in the afternoon or explore the Historic Area on your own. Shopping is also available at Merchants Square, adjacent to the Historic Area.
- 5:30pm
Colonial Williamsburg Tavern Dinner
Taverns were not only an integral part of colonial life in America, but were also a necessity. The modes of travel and transportation of the day mandated the location of a tavern every few miles on the main thoroughfares, where tired and hungry travelers could find food and drink and a bed or floor upon which to sleep. Each of the four operating taverns located in Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area are inspired by a different style of colonial-era cooking. All the menus trace America's culinary heritage from its British ancestry and celebrate the transformation of dishes through the use of ingredients commonly found in the colonies and through the influence of non-British cooks.

- 7:00pm
